Happy Thanksgiving to our US customers!

AirWaves webinar – Wednesday 6th December

Our final AirWaves customer webinar for the year is coming up on Wednesday December 6th and registrations are now open.

The spotlight will be on Product and Technology, with updates on EventsAir Pay, our Smart Connectors, and an exciting development in our API. We'll also be providing an overview of our intensive Product Feedback Workshops from AirTime. As always, each region will be supported by a live Q&A, providing the opportunity to ask our Exec team your questions.
