Successful Azure Migration

Our team has successfully completed the migration of shared services to our new, upgraded Azure infrastructure. This milestone represents a significant step forward in our ongoing efforts to enhance EventsAir and improve your event management experience.

During this brief maintenance window, we didn't experience any platform-wide outages. Our migration team has conducted thorough testing in our new Azure environment. With the shared service migration complete, we're now gearing up for the next phase: migrating individual customers. This process will be organized in a phased approach over the coming weeks, ensuring a smooth transition.

We'll continue to keep you updated every step of the way, providing you with timely information about the migration process and any actions required on your end.

As always, if you have any additional questions or concerns in the interim, please reach out to our support team by logging a ticket via our support portal.

Service Pack – Version 15.1, SP4

This release includes important upgrades to ensure a smooth transition to the new Azure environment. Therefore, we highly recommend unpinning your environment if you are currently pinned. Read all about the improvements and fixes in this service pack here.

Upcoming AirWaves webinar

The May installment of our customer webinar is just around the corner and you do not want to miss out! You'll hear the latest news across the company from CEO, Chris Ridd, as well as an update on the Azure migration from CTO, Mehdi Khalili.
