What's the maximum file size for presentations?

There's no limit to the file size, but we recommend telling presenters that files should be less than 15MB. (It may be possible to upload larger files, but it can create problems such as slow uploading.)

If presentations are very large files (such as videos), you could use a text response field and ask presenters to submit a link to the file(s) instead.